Personal Briefs of People at Home and Abroad

Mr. Jesse Hiner is on the sick list this week.

A good many finishing touches have been put to the hay harvest this week. The weather was propitious.

Mr. V. F. Harouff, wife and child, formerly of Back Creek, now of Millboro Springs, were in town Saturday.

Mr. L. A. Carichoff brought to the Recorder Wednesday a mammoth radish. It weighed nine and half pounds.

Miss May Slaven, of Princeton, W. Va., has returned to Monterey on account of the illness of her father.

The two back lines, east and west, are heavily taxed to accommodate the travelers this season.

Mr. F. G. mauzy, of the Bank of Durbin, came in Wednesday to assist in the work of transferring the First National to its new quarters.

Rev. A. Q. Flaherty, who has resided here for several years, left last week for Botetourt, his native county, where he will make his future home.

Mr. Clifton Matheny has been very much indisposed for several days and confined to his home.

Mr. P. C. Smith, wife and two children, of Bridgewater, spent several days here the first of the week, visiting their daughter, Mrs. Chas. B. Fox.

J. Lunsford is putting up a new blacksmith's shop at the old Paul Brown stand, near Hightown, which will be occupied by Mr. Bud Pullin.

Messrs. James and Hanson Ogilvie, of Beckley, W. Va., and Norfolk, Va., respectively, are spending this week with their mother, Mrs. M. L. Ogilvie.

A little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hull died last Saturday afternoon and was buried Sunday, Rev. W. N. Wagner conducting the service.

Owing to the breaking of a piece of the big press last week, the Recorder was a day late in reaching its destination. We have the break repaired and we hope to have this week's issue out on time.

Miss Clara Warwick, who has spent the summer months at Monterey, left Tuesday morning for Washington city, where she and her father will spend the winter. Her sister, Mrs. Paul Slaven, accompanied her to remain a short time.

Mrs. Jennie Benson and little son, Willie, of Damascus, Va., spent Monday night at Monterey en route to Pocahontas.

Mr. C. Roll, wife and children, of New York City, are spending a vacation at the Huyler summer home on Dry Branch.

The New Hampden Chapel will be dedicated next Sunday, August 23rd. Dr. Fleming, of Lynchburg, will preach the dedicatory sermon. All are invited to attend. Bring your baskets, with something for yourselves and friends.

COMMITTEE.

LOST—A bunch of keys. Finder will return to this office and receive reward.

Misses Lucy and Sallie Bell Arbogast left Tuesday morning, accompanied by their brother, Mr. J. Ed. Arbogast, for Durbin, where they will take the train for Buena Vista and Berryville. Miss Sallie has almost entirely recovered from her recent attack of fever.

Mr. C. W. Trimble left Wednesday morning for a ten-days' stay with relatives and friends in the Ellenboro section of West Virginia. He was accompanied by his little son, Ralph.

The attention of prospective teachers is called to the efficiency and liberality of the State Normal at Farmville. They offer professional training free to young ladies who agree to teach for two years in the public schools. The enrollment last session was 830.

Mr. V. B. Bishop, who has this summer remodeled and enlarged his residence on north Spruce street, has just put in a ram which furnishes his home with an abundance of good spring water. The device, with its many pipes, is intricate and complicated in appearance, but is very effective and simple in its working.

ESTRAYED—from my home at Trimble, Va., seven ewes and ten lambs, six-branded on left side with letters F and labeled in right ears with steel labels with my name on labels. Eleven branded on right side with F. W., and labeled same as the above mentioned. Occasional.

Mr. K. C. Henderson who drives for the Model Laundry met with a painful accident yesterday morning from falling down the elevator shaft at the Hotel Beverley. After receiving medical attention he was taken to his home on Baltimore avenue suffering very much with his back.

Wm. Upchurch, the negro convict who escaped from the convict camp on the Churchville road last Wednesday night has not been recaptured. Some one supposed to be the man was seen on the C. & O. going westward.

Upchurch was sent to prison from Norfolk for two years, and had 18 months yet to serve. He was a trusty, and surprised the officials very much by taking his leave. He took with him a citizen's suit taken from an Augusta jail prisoner recently sent to the camp, and a hatchet with which to break off his shackles. He is supposed to be making for the West Virginia coal fields.—Staunton Dispatch and News.

No one is immune from kidney trouble, so just remember that Foley's Kidney Remedy will stop the regularity and cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is Syt beyond the reach of medicine. Iboardley Bros., Vanderpool. Sold nwall Monterey druggist.

IRA D. SANKEY DEAD.

Ira D. Sankey, known as an evangelist throughout the Christian world, died Sunday night at his home in Brooklyn. Mr. Sankey was 68 years old. For the last five years he had been blind and had suffered from a complication of diseases brought on by overwork. But almost to the very last he worked at hymn writing.

His tours throughout this country and Europe with Dwight L. Moody the evangelist, brought him into wide prominence. Sankey, it might be said, wrote the gospel hymns of the world. In China, Egypt, India, Japan, in almost every language known to man, Sankey's hymns are sung. He received a large income from his publications and leaves considerable estate. Among Mr. Sankey's most familiar compositions are "The Ninety and Nine" and "When the Mists Have Rolled Away." His songs are said to have had a circulation of more than 50,000,000 copies. He was a rapid composer and wrote book after book of gospel hymns.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

SOON TO APPEAR

A new serial, "The Man of the Hour" will follow the Fighting Chance. This popular novel was written by Albert Payson Terhune. A masterly exposure of the knavery of the political boss. With all the advantages of youth, education and good looks and no vocation other than the enjoyment of wealth, the hero of our present story chose rather to sacrifice his ease and comfort on the altar of his duty as a citizen. His city called him to save her from spoliation and corruption, and he responded to the call. To lure him from the path of right came the seductions of love and the claims of revered parent's memory, allied with the mighty forces at the command of political and financial malefactors.

TO GO ON CAMPING TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Maury are giving a party of young people a two weeks' camping trip to Highland county. They will leave Friday morning. Those invited are Miss Scott, of Texas, Misses Merri- cke, of Glendower, and the Misses Maury, Mr. D. Langhorne, Tom Williamson, John R. Woods, W. S. Peyton, T. Merriek, Lucian Bickers, L. Hall and Clifford Tice.—Charlottesville Progress.
